LET IT PASS.

Let former grudges pass.—Shakspeare.

Be not swift to take offence;
Let it pass.
Anger is a foe to sense;
Let it pass.
Spend not darkly o'er a wrong;
Which will disappear ere long;
Ponder ing this cheery song—
Let it pass;
Let it pass.

Scale o'ershades the purest mind;
Let it pass.
As the strongest wind,
Let it pass.
Any single souls that live,
Who can claim without reprieve;
'Tis the noble who forgive
Let it pass,
Let it pass.

Echo not an angry word;
Let it pass.
Think how often you have erred;
Let it pass.
Once our years must pass away,
Like the dew drops on the spray,
Wherefore should our sorrows stay?
Let it pass,
Let it pass.

If we good would be taken ill;
Let it pass.
Oft be kind and gentle still;
Let it pass.
Time at last makes all things straight;
Let us not resent, but wait,
And our triumph shall be great;
Let it pass,
Let it pass.

Hours are fleet to depart;
Let it pass.
Let not anger touch the heart—
Let it pass
Be it grief or joy the throng;
Be it wrong or right the wrong—
Let the closing song be—
Let it pass,
Let it pass.

County Meeting

ON BEHALF AND AID OF THE

PITTSBURGH SANITARY FAIR.

The undersigned having been requested by the Executive Committee of the Pittsburgh Sanitary Fair, "to call a public meeting to interest the citizens" of Beaver county in the cause, do hereby call a COUNTY CONVENTION, to meet at the Court House, in Beaver, on Tuesday, the 10th day of May, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to appoint a County Committee, and a committee in each township, borough and ward, whose duty it shall be to take such other measures as may be deemed necessary to effect a thorough organization of the county, and procure contributions of articles, money and provisions for the Pittsburgh Sanitary Fair.

In view of the great and laudable purpose for which the Fair is to be held, in the City of Allegheny, on the 1st day of June next, we urgently appeal to the citizens of the county to meet the urgency of the occasion and resolve that Beaver county, whose record for loyalty and patriotism is unsurpassed by that of any county in the State, shall, in this hour of her country's need, be second to none in the extent of her contributions for the wants, sufferings and comforts of some forty thousand sick and wounded soldiers in the hospitals of the government, and to the many thousands who may be expected to be found there in a few weeks. We ask that there be a full turn out on the 28th of this month. Come up with hundreds of dollars, patriotic and liberal offerings to assist in comforting, consoling and encouraging our brave soldiers, who left the comforts and endearments of home to defend the life of our nation, our own lives, our liberty, our property, our firesides, and all that is dear and sacred to human existence.

THOMAS CUNNINGHAM,
EDWARD HOUPS,
WM. P. TOWNSEND,

A Candid Statement.—You can procure of any druggist in this city and vicinity, Dr. Tobias Venetian Liniment. It is a sure and speedy cure for sore throat, headache, toothache, chronic rheumatism, colic, croups and pains in the limbs. We advise every one to give it a trial. The expense is a mere trifle—25 cents—and we are confident no person will ever be without it. Every family should have a bottle in the house in case of sudden accidents, such as cuts, burns, scalds, &c. Its pain-relieveing qualities are miraculous. As for croup, it has saved hundreds; we have the certificates to prove it. Office, 56 Cortlandt Street, New-York. Sold by Druggists.

BEAVER ARGUS.

Vol. 40—No. 17, Beaver, Wednesday, April 27, 1864. Established 1818

The Fort Pillow Massacre to be Avenged.

The inauguration exercises of the great fair, at Maryland Institute, Baltimore, on Monday night of last week, were very imposing. The President's appearance in the hall was greeted with tremendous applause.—After the inaugural address of Gov. Bradford, the President was loudly called for, and in response, proceeded to make brief address. He referred to the great change which has taken place in Baltimore in the last three years. The world, he said, has long been wanting to correct the definition of the word freedom. Whilst all professed to advocate liberty, there was in the minds of many, very opposite views, of what liberty is. With one man liberty implied working for himself and doing as he pleased with the proceeds of his labor. With others liberty meant to do as you pleased with other men and their labor. One of these two conflicting ideas would have to give way to the other. He thought from some occurrences that had lately taken place in Maryland, her people were about determining which of these views of freedom should control her destiny. He then alluded to the occurrence reported to have taken place at Fort Pillow, the massacre of several hundred colored soldiers by the Confederates. Many supposed the Government did not intend to do its duty in regard to the protection of our colored soldiers.—He desired to say to such that they were mistaken. When the question of employing colored men as soldiers was left to the Goverment, it rested very much with himself to say whether he should make soldiers of them or not. He pondered the matter carefully, and when he became convinced it was a duty to employ them in that capacity he did not hesitate to do so. He stood before the American people responsible for the act, responsible before the Christian world, responsible before history, responsible he stood before heaven he had made no mistake, he was right. But when the government determined to make soldiers of colored people, he thought it only just that they should have the same protection as white soldiers, (applause.) and he hesitated not to declare that the government would so protect them to the utmost of its power. Whenever a clear and authenticated case was made out, retribution would follow.—Hitherto it has been difficult to ascertain to a certainty what should govern a decision in a matter so serious; but in the affair at Fort Pillow he thought we were likely to find a clear case. The government had no direct evidence to confirm the reports in existence relative to the massacre, but he feared the facts related were true. When the government does know the facts from official sources, and they substantiate the reports, retribution will be surely given. [Great applause.] But how is the retribution to be administered, is a question still to be settled. Would it be right to take the lives of prisoners in Washington, Fort Delaware, or elsewhere, in retaliation for acts in which they had not shared, and which will probably be found the ordering of only a few individuals, or possibly of only one man?

The President reiterated that the Government would not fail to visit retribution, when the facts were clearly obtained. Throughout his remarks he was warmly applauded, especially for his determination to visit retribution for the barbarous deeds of the rebels.

The Coles County Rebellion.—In the Coles county (Ill.) Rebellion eight lives were lost in the affray, and twenty-five prisoners are in custody. These, it is said, will be turned over to the civil authorities, to be tried for riot and murder, the circumstances not being regarded as such as to justify a military trial, or a trial for treason in the U. S. courts. The 54th Regiment, whose members were the objects of attack, and five of whom were killed, have offered a reward of $1,000 for those at large who were engaged in the affair, "dead or alive." The citizens of Charleston have also offered $100 each for about a dozen, including O'Hair, the Sheriff of the county. Many have escaped from the State. The rebellion was a systematically planned thing, the soldiers stationed in detached places throughout the country, were to be dispatched first

The Proclamation of Freedom.

When the final draft of the proclamation was presented by the President to the Cabinet, it closed with the paragraph stating that the slaves it liberated would be received into the armed service of the United States. Mr. Chase objected to the appearance of a document of such momentous importance without one word beyond the dry phrases necessary to convey its meaning and finally proposed that there be added to the President's draft the following sentence:

"And upon this act, sincerely believed to be an act of justice, warranted by the Constitution, I invoke the considerate judgment of mankind and the gracious favor of Almighty God."

Mr. Lincoln adopted the sentence as Mr. Chase wrote it, only interlining after the word "Constitution" the words "upon military necessity," and in that form the proclamation went to the world and history.

The President originally resolved upon the policy of issuing this proclamation in the summer of 1862. As he has expressed it himself, everything was going wrong; we seemed to have put forth our utmost effort; and he really didn't know what more to do unless he did this. Accordingly, he prepared the preliminary proclamation, nearly in the form in which it subsequently appeared, called the Cabinet together, and read it to them.

Mr. Blair was startled. If you issue that proclamation, Mr. President," he exclaimed, "you will lose every one of the fall elections."

Mr. Seward, on the other hand, said, I approve of it, Mr. President, just as it stands. I approve of it in principle, and I approve the policy of issuing it. I only object to the time.—Send it out now, on the heels of our late disasters, and it will be construed as the convulsive struggle of a drowning man. To give it proper weight, you should reserve it till after some victory."

The President assented to Mr. Seward's views, and the proclamation went forth precisely as originally prepared. The paragraph which Mr. Chase supplied the concluding sentence was the final Proclamation issued on the subsequent 1st of January.—Cor. Cin. Gaz.

Persecution of Union Men.

The Louisville Journal says:—We have been shown a private letter from Calloway county, Kentucky, which tells a sad tale of the persecution of Union men by guerillas in that portion of the State. The bands swarm through the counties and depredate on the citizens without meeting with any opposition. In the latter part of March, four fifteen of the citizens of Calloway were caught and hung by the neck for refusing to tell where property real or imaginary, was secreted. The object of the guerillas appears to have been to torture them to make a confession, for, in each instance, the victims were cut down before life was extinct. One man refused to submit the torture and they deliberately shot him dead. The Union men have become alarmed for their safety and are almost universally leaving the country, and seeking refuge in other parts of the State.—These statements may be considered trustworthy, for they are made by a gentleman of unflinching Union principles, and the whole of his letter breathes a spirit of despair.

Public Examinations.

The following appointments are made by the undersigned for the examination of applicants for teaching Common Schools, in Beaver county, viz:

Hanover District—April 27th, at Miller's School House.

Moon District—April 29th, at Davis' School House.

South Beaver District—May 3d, at M'Ilhenny's School House.

New Brighton District—May 12th, at New Brighton School House.

Freedom District—May 13th, Freedom School House.

The examinations will begin at 10 o'clock, a m.

Teachers will procure their own Stationery and revenue Stamps.

School directors are particularly requested to be present at the examinations.

Parents, also, should be present to see the qualifications of those who are to instruct their children.

Prophetic Foresight of Douglas.

In a recent speech in the House of Representatives, Mr. Arnold, of Illinois, made these interesting statements:

Here I will pause a moment to state a most remarkable prediction made by Douglas in January, 1861.—The statement is furnished to me by General C. B. Stewart, of New York, a gentleman of the highest respectability. Douglas was asked one day by Stewart (who was making a New Year's call on Mr. Douglas,) what will be the result of the efforts of Jefferson Davis and his associates to divide the Union?" Douglas replied: "The Cotton States are making a great effort to draw in the border States to their scheme of Secession, and I am too fearful they will succeed. If they do succeed there will be the most terrible civil war the world has ever seen, for years. Virginia will become a charnel house; but the end will be the triumph of the Union cause. One of their first efforts will be to take possession of this capital to give them prestige abroad, but they will never succeed in taking it; the North will rise en masse to defend it; but it will become a city of hospitals; the churches will be used for the sick and wounded, and even the Minnesota block (now the Douglas Hospital) may be devoted to that purpose before the end of the war." Gen. Stewart inquired, "What justification is there for all this?" Douglas replied, "there is no justification, nor any pretence of any. If they will remain in the Union I will go as far as the Constitution will permit to maintain their rights, and I do not doubt but a majority of Congress will do the same. But," said he, rising on his feet, and extending his arm, "If the Southern States attempt to secede from this Union without further cause, I am in favor of their having just so many slaves, and just so much slave territory as they can hold at the point of the bayonet, and no more."

[illegible] course of a picnic [illegible] Chicago, a short time ago, spoke as follows of Lieut. Gen. Grant:

General Grant is, as you know, at the head of all the armies. (Enthusiastic applause.) It might seem superfluous for me to attempt to give my opinion to the people about the merits and success of Gen. Grant, but nevertheless I will do so. I have known him for a great number of years. General Grant possesses qualities which pre-eminently fit him for the position he now holds. He is distinguished for magnanimity: he is one of the most magnanimous men I ever knew: he is entirely unambitious and unselfish; he is a capital judge of men, and he possesses in a remarkable degree the quality of good common sense. (Loud cheering.)

These qualities, I think, will make a good General, particularly when he has good Generals to deal with, because if he is magnanimous he will give everybody credit for what they have done, and not seek to rob them of the fame which they have honestly earned. If he is unambitious he will not seek to undermine innocent persons who may seem to be in the way, and if he has good common sense and good judgment, he will keep each man below him to that specific duty for which he is best fitted; so that General Grant, who combines all the qualifications, is very apt to succeed. And General Grant thus far has been successful, and the chances are that he will succeed in the future! (Thunders of applause.)

He is to leave the West for the present and take temporary command of the Eastern army, (cheers) and without saying anything to the disgrace of the generals who have heretofore commanded the Eastern army, I think he will infuse into that army a degree of confidence which it has not felt for some time, because success always carries with it confidence, and that is what they want. Inasmuch as he has been successful heretofore he will have the confidence of the army, and possessing the qualifications which I think he has, it seems to me we can all go home to-night feeling that success will attend the efforts of General Grant in the disposition of the military affairs in the armies of the United States during this campaign.

Marked Articles.

Some of the marks which are fastened on the blankets, shirts, &c., sent to the Sanitary Commission for the soldiers, show the thoughts and feelings at home.

Thus, on a homespun blanket, worn, but washed as clean as snow, was pinned a bit of paper, which said: "This blanket was carried by Milly Aldrich, (who is ninety three years old,) down hill and up hill one and a half miles, to be given to some soldier."

On a bed quilt was pinned a card, [illegible] "My son is in the army.—[illegible] which I have worked [illegible] days and most of six nights. Let him remember his own mother's love."

On another blanket was this: "This blanket was used by a soldier in the war of 1812—may it keep some soldier warm in this war against traitors."

On a pillow was written: "This pillow once belonged to my little boy, who died resting on it. It is a precious treasure to me, but I give it to the soldiers."

On a pair socks was written: These socks were knit by a little girl five years old, and she is going to knit some more, for mother says it will help some poor soldier."

On a box of beautiful lint was this mark: "Made in a sick room, where the sunlight has not entered for nine years, but where God has, and where two sons have bid their mother goodbye as they have gone to the war."

On a bundle containing bandages was written: "This is a poor gift, but it is all I had. I have given my husband and my boy, and only wish I had more to give, but I havn't."

On some eye shades were marked: "Made by one who is blind. Oh! how I long to see the dear old Flag that you are all fighting under!"

The Deacon and the Wasps.—A worthy deacon in Wood was ever attentive to the Divine Word was ever attentive to [illegible] sermons. The Divine Word was ever attentive to [illegible] sermons, and all the trivial, as well as important occurrences of life, furnished occasion for quoting the language of the Bible. What was better, however, the exemplary man always made his quotations the standard of action. One hot day, he was engaged in mowing, with his hired man, who was leading off, the deacon following in his swarth, coming his apt quotation, when the man suddenly sprang from his place, leaving his swarth just in time to avoid a wasps' nest.

"What is the matter?" inquired the deacon.

"Wasps!" was the laconic reply.

"Poh!" said the deacon, "the wicked flee when no man pursueth, but the righteous are as bold as a lion!" and taking the workman's swarth, he mowed but a step when a swarm of the brisk insects settled about his ears, and he was forced to retreat, with many a painful sting, and in great discomfiture.

"Ah!" shouted the other, with a chuckle, "the prudent man forseeth the evil, and hideth himself, but the simple pass on, and are punished."

The deacon had found his equal in making applications of the sacred writings, and thereafter was not known to quote scripture in a mowing field.

Gen Sigel's Recent Order.

General Sigel has at last come under the influence of rules which have so long been maintained with strictness by Gen Butler.

His recent order to all persons residing in his department, in relation to the carrying or concealing arms cannot fail to have a good effect on the people. The order amounts to about this: No person residing within the Department, on or south of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and not belonging to the army of the United States, will be allowed to keep or bear arms, except those belonging to the State militia. All other persons, loyal or disloyal, will deliver their arms to the nearest commanding officer or military Provost Marshal, with their names affixed thereto, so, that they may be properly cared for, and returned when the public safety may permit. All such arms will be sent either to Harper's Ferry, Cumberland or Charlestown, and turned over the the proper officer.

☞ Some people turnup their noses at this world, as if they were in the habit of keeping company with a better one.

Colfax and McPherson.

The following excellent pen photographs of the Speaker and Clerk of the House of Representatives we extract from the Washington Corespondence of The Independent.

Meantime, as there is little doing here, I propose to say a few things this week respecting two young men's connection with this Congress, and particularly this House of Representatives, which I should have said in December. The young men I allude to occupy important positions in connection with the House, for they are its Speaker and Clerk.

Both are young, have been printers and newspaper men, and slight and active men, have made themselves what they are personally known. I do not propose to bore the reader with biographical sketches, but will content myself with writing a few facts, perhaps not generally known, respecting Messrs Colfax and McPherson.

Mr. Colfax is about forty years of age, and born in the city of New York. Gen. Wm Colfax, of New Jersey, commanded Washington's Life Guards through the Revolutionary War, and was an intimate companion of the Father of his Country during the closing years of the war, sitting daily at his table. Miss Colfax whose pleasant face and manners are familiar to all who have frequented the Colfax receptions this winter, frequently wears a begemmed belt buckle, worn by Washington during the Revoluiton and presented by him to Mr Colfax's grandfather. After the war was over, General Colfax married Miss Hester Schuyler, cousin of Gen. Philip Schuyler, and from this source comes the given name of Schuyler. In 1812 Gen. Colfax commanded at Sandy Hook, and had the rank of brigadier-general. Schuyler Colfax's father was a teller in the Mechanics' Bank of New-York at the age of thirty, and about that time married the present Mrs. Mathews, who was but fifteen years old. Four months after the death of his father, Schuyler Colfax was born, inheriting nothing from his father but his name. He obtained all his education in the common schools of New York and second husband, Mr. Mathews, who are now a part of Mr. Colfax's family in Washington. Mr. Colfax has lived but in two counties—the county of New York and St. Joseph county, Indiana. At twenty-one he established the Register, at South Bend, which he still publishes. At the end of the first year he was $1,375 in debt, but in a few years it became a productive property—and was then burned out, with but little insurance. Mr. Colfax began anew, and was more successful. His political course is known to all, and I need not refer to it here. When first nominated to the State Senate of Indiana, he declined because he could not afford to leave his business. He was never a plaintiff or defendant in a court of justice, never drank liquor or wine, but is an excessive smoker. He has banished liquor from the House wing of the capitol in spite of many protests against it. Since the war broke out he has given, though a poor man, nearly $3,000 to sick and wounded soldiers, and to encourage volunteering.

Mr. Colfax has a slight figure, gray eyes, and brown hair, and though he has been in Congress many years he still looks young. His district has intimated to him that they will not permit him to retire at the close of the present Congress.

The Speaker is a self-made man, and so is the Clerk of the House, Edward McPherson, who was born at Gettysburg, Pa., 1830. At eleven years of age he began to learn the printing business—alternating between school and the printing office. He was a good practical printer and a clever scholar; graduated at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, in 1848 with the honors of his class, and spent the winter in Harrisburg in reporting and writing for the newspapers.—During the gubernatorial campaign of 1851, he edited the Daily American, Harrisburg, and subsequently edited other papers in Pennsylvania. In 1857-8 he first attracted attention throughout the State by an able series of articles upon the proposed sale of the Public Improvements of the State. No attempt was made to reply to his arguments, or to overthrow his facts and the Democracy reluctantly consented to the measure. McPherson by this time had secured his State reputation, and in the fall of 1856 he was elected to Congress. He was re-elected in '60, and defeated in '62, owing to Stuart's raid, which prevented a full vote from being polled. Mr. Chase appointed him Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and last December he was elected Clerk of the House.

Mr. McPherson, like Mr. Colfax, has a slight figure, and as he moves quietly over the House, intent upon the duties of his office, he has the appearance of a young student rather than of a public man with a national reputation. He has clear, blue eyes and light hair. No one can look him in the face and doubt his integrity of character. He is expert in business, to be trusted under all circumstances, and will make the best Clerk the House has had for many years.

It is singular, but it is a fact that there has been no House for years with a Speaker or Clerk so ready, affable and popular as Mr. Colfax and Mr. McPherson. Yet they grew up from poverty by industry and a courageous confidence in themselves, to their present exalted positions.—Independent.

☞ A letter from Washington to the Indianapolis Gazette says:

"A few days ago, the workman employed on the dome discovered that a dove was making her nest in the ample sleeve of the brazen Goddess.—Day after day week after week this her mate, was observed to fly back and forth, while gathering materials for the purpose. Her home is now established in the sleeve of liberty, and in due time she will send her broodings forth from thence into the world. Is it not an agreeable incident?"

A True Test.—Newspaper subscribers are infallable tests of man's honesty. If a man is dishonest he will cheat the printer in some way—say that he has paid when he has not—or sent money and it was lost by mail—or will take the paper and will not pay for it, or will move off, leaving it to come to the office he left. Thousands are dishonest, and the printer's book will tell fearfully on the final settlement at the judgment day.

☞ The hat was passed round in a certain congregation for the purpose of taking up a collection. After it had made the circuit of the church, it was handed to the minister, who, by the way, had exchanged pulpits with the regular preacher, and he found not a penny in it. He inverted the hat over the pulpit cushin and shook it, that its emptiness might be known, then, raising his eyes toward the ceiling, he exclaimed, "Thank God, I have got cape from the rebel conscription and reaching our lines in Tennessee, being asked if the conscription was rigid, replied in this wise—"I should think it was! They take every man who hasn't been dead more than two days."

☞ A reporter of the Poughkeepsie Sanitary Fair tells this story: "Passing through one of the halls, a placard caught my eye: 'Representation of a bona fide Historical event; persons taken in for ten cents. I sailed in. A young lady pulled a bone across a huge piece of brass kind, which she was pleased to inform me represented Bonaparte crossing the Rhine.

☞ An Irishman who was at the celebrated battle of Bull Run, was somewhat startled when the head of his companion on the left was taken off by a cannon ball. In a few minutes, however, a spent ball broke off the finger of his companion on the other side. The latter threw down his gun and howled with pain when the Irishman rushed upon him, exclaiming, "You ould woman stop cryin'! You're makin' more noise about it than the man who has just lost his head."

☞ Gov. Johnson, of Tenn., made a speech at Knoxville, recently, during the sitting of the State Convention, and took radical ground on the question of emancipation in that State. Subsequently a flag-staff was erected on the spot where the rebels destroyed the old liberty pole in 1861.

☞ A gentleman was promenading on a fashionable street with a bright little boy by his side, when the little fellow cried out, "Oh ps, look! there goes an editor!" "Hush, hush, my son, don't make sport of the poor man; God only knows, but you may be reduced to the same condition yet!"

☞ The estimation put upon Jeff. Davis in North Carolina is shown by this observation in the late speech of Governor Vance. He said: "If every man in this county (Wilkes) who had used abusive language toward Jeff. Davis and the Confederate Government were to be put in jail, he would have to address his entire audience through the prison bars."

☞ In describing the difference between aristocracy and democracy, it is wittily said of Cincinnati—the democracy are those who kill hogs for a living, the aristocracy those whose fathers killed hogs.

☞ Chief Justice Taney resumed his seat on the bench of the Supreme Court on Friday, having entirely recovered from his sickness of three or four months' duration.

THE BEAVER ARGUS.

Wednesday, April 27, 1864.

D. L. IMBRIE, Editor & Proprietor.

For President in 1864,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN,

OF ILLINOIS.

For Vice President,

ANDREW G. CURTIN

OF PENNSYLVANIA.

NOTICE.

HAVING sold to D L. Imbrie, present Editor & Proprietor of the Beaver Argus, my accounts for Subscription, Advertising, &c., all those indebted will please call and settle with him. T. C. NICHOLSON.

REMOVAL.---The ARGUS OFFICE has been removed to the room over Dr. Cummins' Drug Store, nearly opposite our old office, where we may be found at all times, ready to attend to the wants of our friends and patrons. Entrance at the North side of the building.

☞We have not our usual amount of Editorial matter this week, owing to the absence of the editor, who was compelled to leave on account of the serious illness of his father.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.—Both branches of the Pennsylvania Legislature have passed the bill providing for a special election throughout the State on the first Tuesday in August next, at which the people shall decide whether the proposed amendment to the Constitution permitting soldiers to vote shall be adopted. The legislature is to meet on the 23d day of August to recieve the returns.

FRANKLIN RAILROAD.—The Mercer Whig says: The engineers have completed the preliminary survey of the the New Castle & Franklin railroad from New Castle to Mercer. This route is entirely practicable, and the cost of construction will not be greater than that of any other roads in this section of the country. The engineers will proceed at once with the survey of the road to Brownsville, and probably to Franklin.

George C. Bradshaw, Esq.

It is our painful duty to record the death of our esteemed friend, George C. Bradshaw, Esq., late Treasurer of Beaver county, which occurred at the residence of his father, in this county, on the evening of the 19th of April, after a protracted illness. Mr. Bradshaw was a young man of delicate health for a number of years, suffering from bronchial affection, which, owing to a severe cold caught in the early part of the winter, become greatly irritated and finally communicated the inflamation to the lungs, causing his death. Mr. Bradshaw was born in this county, in the township in which his father now resides, and was at the time of his death about thirty-four years of age. The early part of his life was spent on a farm, until about ten years since, when he removed to Fallston, and entered the mercantile business, which he followed until he was elected Treasurer of Beaver county, in the fall of 1861.—He filled the office to which he was elected for two years, displaying great business capabity, energy and promptness. As an officer, he was always pleasant and obliging in his manner, accommodating to a fault, and strictly honest. As a man, we cannot say too much in his praise, for everybody loved him. It has been our pleasure to meet but few men so uniformly kind, obliging and engaging in manner, that had so few faults and so many virtues. Not quite one year ago, his wife, who was in every way worthy of his love, and whom he loved dearly, was summoned away by death under very painful circumstances, and in the absence of her husband. The afflicted husband was almost heart-broken, and we remember accompanying him to her grave shortly after her death and his telling us that he had no longer a desire to live, that life had no charms for him, and he felt he should soon follow her he loved. But a few short months elapsed, and he has received his summons to join her. His wish has been realized. Both died in the enjoyment of christian religion, relying upon a Saviour's love, and with bright hopes of life and immortality beyond the grave. Happy in their lives, happy in their death, their future shall likewise be happy, for they are with their Father. While we have no regrets for them, except that we are deprived of their society, we do sympathise with their four orphan children who will never know a father's care or mother's love. What a sad bereavement is theirs?

☞It is reported that Governor Morton will take command in person of the militia of Indiana.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

On motion, the committee on resolutions reported as follows:

[The resolutions were handed to us, but have been mislaid. We understand they endorse the National administration in the strongest terms, and instruct the delegate elect to vote for the re-nomination of President Lincoln.—ED. ARGUS.]

On motion, the Convention proceeded to nominate Delegates to the State Convention. Jas. S. Rutan was, on motion, elected Representative Delegate by acclamation, and Samuel A. Power was elected Senatorial Delegate in connection with Butler county.

On motion, proceeded to nominate and elect a Delegate to the National Convention. Gen. W. W. Irwin and B. R. Bradford, Esq., were placed in nomination. The ballot resulted in the election of Gen. Irwin, he [illegible] Chair appointed D. L. Imbrie, James Patterson and S. A. Power, Conferees.

On motion, the Convention adjourned.

Militia to be Paid.

The members of Company F, Capt. Rutan, 14th Regiment Pennsylvania Militia, will please call at my Office on Saturday, April 30th, for the purpose of signing the Pay Rolls preparatory to receiving their pay in a short time.

The parents or friends of those who cannot be here to sign the Rolls and receive their pay can call at my office any time after the 28th inst., and get blank powers of attorney which they can send to members of the Company to be signed authorizing some one to sign the Rolls and draw their pay for them.

Powers of Attorney must be acknowledged before a Justice of the Peace or Colonel Commanding the regiment. The blanks must be taken at once or they cannot be signed and returned before the payment will be made. JAMES S. RUTAN, Captain.

P. S. Having to be absent for some days, members of the Company can call at the Store of I. N. Atkins and sign the rolls. I will return by the 30th. J. S. R.

Tribute of Respect.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted by the Beaver Co. Medical Society at the last meeting.

During the last half year, death has visited this Society, and removed from its membership Drs. Smith Cunningham and George W. Allison.

Dr. Cunningham was born in Lancaster county, Pa., on the 10th of Jan. 1804, but with his father removed to to Ohio, in 1813. He left his home early in life, and by his own energy and industry, acquired a liberal education, and after a thorough course of medical studies, commenced the practice of his profession in Petersbugh, Ohio, in 1829. In the fall of that year he changed his location to Beaver, Pa., where he followed his profession—the most of the time in partnership with the late Dr. Oliver Cunningham—until the disease that finally terminated his earthly career, put a stop to his arduous labors. Dr. Cunningham had an extensive practice, and was a skillful and successful physician; was a man of sterling integrity, and enjoyed the full confidence of the community, but especially of the class that received his professional services. He twice represented this Society in the State Medical Society, at one of which he was their presiding officer. He died October 25th, 1863, in the 60th year of his age.

Dr. Allison was the son of Hon. James Allison, late of Beaver; was born in Washington, Pa., in April, 1003. During his infancy his father removed to Beaver, where he resided until his death. In early life he enjoyed the advantage of the best schools in the west at that period, and graduated with honor at Washington College. He studied medicine in the office of the late Dr. Milo Adams, of Beaver, and after attending a medical course, in the University of Maryland, commenced the practice of his profession at his home in Beaver, in the year 1828. The Doctor was a close student, and kept up with the progress made in the profession of his choice, and by earnest application became eminently a scientific and skillful physician. He obtained and maintained a large practice, enjoyed the confidence of his patients, and of the community in which he lived. He twice represented the Beaver County Medical Society in the Pa. State Society, and at one meeting was one of its Vice Presidents. Dr. Allison died Dec. 7th, 1863, in the 61st year of his age.

Drs. Cunningham and Allison were both members of this society when it was first organized, and were among its oldest, most respected and influential members. They were seldom absent from its meetings, and were always ready to participate in its councils and to contribute to the objects for which it was organized; their full share of medical knowledge, which an industrious and studious application to their profession for a period of between thirty and forty years, enabled them to do. They were always courteous and honorable in their intercourse with their professional brethren, which has done much toward softening and making endurable the responsible and arduous duties of the conscientous and care-worn physician, in his intercourse with his patients, and his professional brethern, wherever association has made them operative. While we, their surviving brethern, mourn their loss and submit to this afflictive dispensation of Divine Providence, which has removed them from us, it is becoming and right that we should express our appreciation of their many virtues and meritorious qualifications as professional brethern, citizens and gentlemen; therefore be it

Resolved, That we regard the death of our much esteemed and venerable brothers as a great loss to the profession, to the community in which they resided, and who enjoyed the advantage of their mature judgments and scientific and skillful professional services, in times of sickness and trial, for more than one third of a century; and especially to the members of the Beaver County Medical Society, to whom they had endeared themselves by their gentlemanly and courteous conduct; the swisdom of their counsels; the fidelity and ability with which they discharged their duties as members of the society.

Resolved, That being fully sensible of the moral, social and professional worth of our deceased brothers, and of the valuable services they have rendered to the society and to the community, we do now direct to be entered on record on the minutes of of this society this preamble and resolutions, as evidence of the high estimation their associates have ever held them, and the deep regret we feel for their loss.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the bereaved families and friends of our deceased brothers in their afflictions, and direct the Secretary of this society to transmit to each of their families a copy of these resolutions.

Resolved, That these resolutions accompany the Sanitary report of the Society to the State Medical Society for publication in the transactions of the Society, and that they be published in the county papers.

The Maryland Convention.

Governor Bradford has published a proclamation announcing the result of the late election in Maryland on the question of calling a State Constitutional Convention. The Governor states that the whole vote cast was 51,117, of which 31,593 were for, and 19,524 against a convention. He therefore, as required by an act of Assembly, proclaims that the convention authorized by the act will be convened in the city of Annapolis on Wednesday, the 27th instant, when the delegates legally elected thereto will assemble and enter on the discharge of their duties.

☞THE Members of the Bar, and Officers of the county, met in the Treasurer's Office, on Wednesday, April 20, 1864, to take some action in relation to the death of George C. Bradshaw, Esq., late Treasurer of Beaver county. On motion, John Caughey, Esq., was called to the chair, and J. S. Rutan appointed Secretary. J. S. Rutan, John A. Frazier and S. Davenport were appointed a Committee to prepare resolutions, who reported the following:

WHEREAS, We have learned of the death of George C. Bradshaw, late Treasurer of Beaver county, which occurred at the house of his father in, this county, on the evening of the 19th of April; Therefore,

Resolved, That in his death the the county has lost a worthy and excellent citizen, who was ever faithful, honest and obliging in the discharge of his duty as an officer, society one who was an ornament to it, and we a friend we esteemed and loved on account of his many manly virtues.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathise with the friends of the deceased, his aged father and mother, and four orphan children, so early deprived of both father and mother's care and love.

Resolved, That we attend the funeral in body, and that these resolutions be published in the county papers.

JOHN CAUGHEY, Ch'n.
J. RUTAN, Sec'y.

News from the Front.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, April 21.—General Grant left here for the front to-day, and General Burnside went by special boat to Fortress Monroe. It is understood that the recent development of the intentions of the rebels renders an early movement of the Army of the Potomac highly probable. Such an event will be in accordance with the expressed desires of Mr. Lincoln and other leading men here. Without going into the details, it is enough to say that the Spring has not been idled away, and that preparations for the campaign have been equal to the importance of the work to be accomplished. There is little doubt that the next thirty days will bring about a great change of affairs of a kind in military affairs.

The recent order of Gen. Grant banishing sutlers from the army, rids it of over twenty eight hundred supernumeraries. The War Department has given orders for an addition of 15,000 beds to the present hospital accommodations here. All patients able to bear removal are to be sent North at once. The report gains credence here among military men that Lee has sent part of his army in to the Shenandoah Valley, with a view of compelling Grant to divide his army by sending a force in pursuit.

Western Governors' Visit.

A Washington dispatch of the 22d says: The versions of the object of the mission of Western Governors in Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin have tendered to the Government 100,000 men for one hundred days service from the date of muster—this force to take part in the great Potomac campaign, or to perform any other service the Government may require. The Governors propose to have these State troops, regularly mustered into the United States service, and clothed, subsisted and paid by the Government. Of the total number, Ohio proposes to furnish 30,000, Indiana 30,000, Illinois 25,000, and Iowa 5,000. The Governors are confident of being able to put the whole force on duty in thirty days. The Government has not yet accepted the proposition.—Michigan was not consulted in regard to it, but is expected to furnish 10,000 additional men. This movement was inaugurated by Gov. MORTON.

From the Potomac Army

Dispatches from Washington, of the 22d inst., says: The Town is full of rumors to-day of army movements.—They are undoubtedly premature so far any serious operations are concerned; but the opening of Grant's campaign is not likely to be much longer delayed. Rebel deserters have an idea, which is gaining wide credence with us, that there is some probability of Lee's anticipating Grant, and making aggressive movements himself. Counter reports come via refugees that the rebels are putting a second line of works around Richmond, and placing heavy siege guns on them, and that Lee will not fight Grant on the line of the Rapidan, but will fall back to Richmond where it is intended to make a desperate struggle.—Rebel deserters have an idea, which is gaining wide credence with us, that there is some probability of Lee's anticipating Grant, and making aggressive movements himself. Counter reports come via refugees that the rebels are putting a second line of works around Richmond, and placing heavy siege guns on them, and that Lee will not fight Grant on the line of the Rapidan, but will fall back to Richmond where it is intended to make a desperate struggle.—Reuter's car, take all stories for what they may think them worth. The reports to the effect that the rebels are in force in Shenandoah Valley, or elsewhere in the vicinity of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, are without the slightest foundation in truth.

FROM CHATTANOOGA.—The Chattanooga Gazette of Sunday says everything is very quiet at that place in the military line, with the exception of the moving of troops and munitions of war. Immense supplies of subsistence are being accumulated in the Government warehouses, and every preparation being made for a successful campaign as soon as active operations begin. Our friends at the North can rely upon it that the armies in this this department will do their duty. The soldiers are in comfortable quarters, enjoing good health, and are ready for the fray. They feel confident that the ensuing campaign is to be a decisive one.

ARREST OF GENERAL MEREDITH.—General Meredith, of Indiana, says a Washington dispatch of the 22d, was to-day put under arrest for visiting this city without leave, and disobeying the order issued about a month ago for him to report at Cairo.

The Christian Commission.

To the Auxiliary Societies of the Army Committee of Beaver County, the Committee desire to make a most earnest appeal on behalf of the Christian Commission, which we hope will be responded to with former liberality and promptness.

The Sanitary Commission, that looks simply to the temporal necessities of the soldier, in looking forward to the pressing demands that must be consequent upon the Spring campaign, are making most vigorous and successful efforts to increase their funds to millions of dollars. Their zeal and foresight reminds us of the necessity of keeping our various organizations that have been in such successful operation during the last year, constantly and actively at work that we may be able to meet the demands that will continue to be made upon us in our two-fold work, viz: ministering to the spiritual and temporal wants of the soldiers at the same time. Through this agency, as God's instrumentality, many have already been brought into the Kingdom of God, and tens of thousands have been relieved of pain and suffering and their wants supplied.

The Army Committee of Beaver county therefore hope that every Soldiers' Aid Society will, without delay, commence with new zeal and energy to prepare stores and collect funds for this purpose—sending the stores to Mr. J. C. Wilson, in Beaver, or to Mr. G. C. Speyerer, in Rochester, or if more convenient, forward them directly to Mr. W. P. Weyman, No. 76 Smithfield st., Pittsburg, distinctly marked. All monies should be sent to Dr. John Murray, Bridgewater, or, if by mail, to Rochester, Beaver co.—We append the report of the Pitts. Army Commission, for the information of all contributors.

DAN'L AGNEW, Pres't.
W. G. TAYLOR, Sec'y.

Report of W. P. Weyman, Receiver of Christain Commission; Storer oom, No. 76 Smithfield Street, Pittsburgh.

The Army Committee for the year ending April 1, 1864, have forwarded to our armies and distributed at home, hospital stores and reading matter to the amount of $80,610, fully three-fourths of which has been sent to the army of the Cumberland, which has been placed under our special care, and looks to us for it chief supply. At Camp Howe we established a station during the fall of 1863, and also one at Camp Copeland the beginning of March, which is now in full operation. The U. S. General Hospital has been visited weekly, and such stores as the men needed have been given to them by the ladies of the Subsistence Committee. A large quantity of lumber, bedding and clothing was furnished the Hospital during the month of March, in order to erect quarters and make them comfortable, to accommodate the large number of sick which were removed from Camp Copeland. Preaching has prayer meetings every evening, by the delegates of the Commission.—3,520 articles of hospital clothing have been cut out and made up, through the efforts of the ladies of the Subsistence Committee. The following is a list of stores distributed:

Report of Joseph Albree, Treasurer.

The cash rec'pts of the Army Com. year ending Apr. 13'64 have been $28,034 86

The expenses have been as follows:

For stores	16,088 64
For publications	3,556 58
For equipm'ts & expn's 130 delegates	2,722 45
For remittance to Central office	1,803 55
For office expn's, including postage, stationery, printing rep'ts, rent of store room, wages of boy, etc	876 30
For expenses of public meeting	156 71
For relief of soldiers in city	41 15
For funeral expenses of a delegate	30.00
For counterfeit money	78 50

leaving a balance on hand of $2,680.88. Outstanding accounts unsettled about $1,000, reducing the amount actually on hand to $1,680 88. Since December, 1863, the average expenditure for stores has been $100 per day. For religious publications $500 per month. During the months of February and March our expenditures for the necessities, as well as comforts of the soldiers at Camp Copeland, have been a trifle short of $2,000. One hundred and thirty delegetes have been sent to the field, of whom thirty are now laboring in the armies. The average expenses of those delegates for a term of six weeks have been, sixteen dollars. Delegates receive no salary—there actual expenses only being borne by the Committee.

The amount on hands being sufficient to meet the current expenses for two weeks, we make this statement in the that hope the Christian public may be induced to contribute liberally and speedily to the funds of the Christian Commission. All donations may be sent to JOSEPH ALBREE, Treas., No. 71 Wood street, Pittsburgh.

Gens. Butler and Smith.

BALTIMORE, April 24.—The American having copied from the New York World what was represented to be an extract from a letter from Gen. Butler, threatening to resign on account of the appointment of Gen. Smith to the command of the Peninsula, has received the following dispatch from the General, dated:

FORTRESS MONROE, April 23.—Editor Baltimore American: My attention is called to an article in your paper headed "A Protest from Gen. Butler," which purposes that I have written the silly paragraph therein contained. I have written no such letter—it is not the kind of a letter I am accustomed to write. There has been no shadow of occasion for it, and more than the consideration to which I am entitled has been shown me by the Government in relation to my present command. I should not break my habit of not contradicting reports save that, if not contradicted, it may effect others than myself.

Signed, B. F. BUTLER,
Maj. Gen Com Dep. of V. & N. C.

Plymouth, N. C.

Plymouth is situated on the right bank of the Roanoke, eight miles above its entrance into Albamarle Sound. It was first occupied by the Union forces in February, 1862, immediately after the capture of Roanoke Island by Gen Burnside. It was not then defendeded by any fortification, but one was erected above the town, commanding it and the river, and named Fort Gray. When the rumors of a foray by the rebel ironclads from above assumed a form which entitled them to credence, obstructions were placed in the river, six miles above the town, in order to prevent the descent of the rebel boats. General Wessels, commander of the post, is a Brigadier General of volunteers, and was commissioned as such, April 25th, 1862. He is a Major in the Seventh Infantry, a graduate of West Point, and entered the service July 1, 1833.

CINCINNATI, April 24.—Gov. Morton has issued a proclamation to the people of Indiana, saying that the Governors of Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Indiana offered to raise for the service of the General Government eighty thousand men, for the period of one hundred days, to perform in such military service as might be required of them in any State. The Governor calls for 20,000 volunteers. He says that the importance of making the coming campaign successful and decisive is not to be overestimated, and feels confident that this call will be promptly and fully responded to.

CINCINNATI, April 24.—Gov. Brough has issued an order calling the National Guard of Ohio into active service for 100 days. They will be clothed, armed, equipped and paid by the United States Government. They are marshaling for a decisive blow, and the citizen soldiery, will share the glory of the crowning victories of the campaign by relieving our veteran regiments from post and garrison duty, to allow them to engage in the more arduous duties of the field.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—Edward B. Benton, a native of Waltham, Vt., and for nearly two years past a resident of Fort Pillow, who was in the fort during the Forrest's attack, was examined at Gen. Rosecrans' Head Quarters on Tuesday last, and fully corroborated all previous reports of rebel barbarities there, and made an additional statement that bloodhounds were used to discover the hiding places of those who escaped the massacre. He says that reliable reports state that Major Bradford was shot and hung near Covington.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—There is a general impression in this city that active movements in Virginia will not be much longer delayed by the armies on both sides. Rumors prevailed to-day in relation to Warrenton, Va., but the one entitled to more credit is that our troops merely fell back a few miles from that place for proper purposes. General Burnside is in Washington.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 19.—Gov. Murphy was inaugurated yesterday. Over ten thousand citizens and soldiers were present. A grand procession of the military, members of the Legislature, State officers, Citizens and Freedmen preceded the ceremonies, which were very impressive, and elicited the most enthusiastic cheering. The city was brilliantly illuminated at night. The Governor's Message was sent to the Legislature last week.

☞One of the objects with which the rebels propose to undertake a grand invasion of the North this Spring, is recruiting. The Montgomery (Ala.) Mail, in a recent article on the subject, says: "Let us invade them with our whole force. Missouri, Kentucky, Maryland, and the 'copperheads' will swell our ranks. The Copperheads are exercising themselves, (as in Coles county, Ill., for instance) preparatory to enlist when the stars and bars make their appearance.

NOT TO BE PAID.—It is not expected that the bill to pay Status for militia called out to repel invasions, such as John Morgan's raid, will pass this session. Men like the Ohio squirrel hunters are not anxious for pay for what was a labor of love, and the treasury has more pressing demands upon it now.

DEATH OF GENERAL TOTTEN.—General Totten, Chief of Engineers, died on Friday, in his eightieth year.—He was appointed Brevet Major General in the regular army just before his death.

The Surrender of Plymouth

FORTRESS MONROE, April 24.—via BALTIMORE, April 25.—An officer who has just arrived from Roanoke Island, brings the following news: Gen. Wessels surrendered Plymouth on Wednesday, the 20th. inst., after four days' fighting. Our loss was 150 killed, and 2,500 prisoners. The rebel loss was 100 killed.

☞The Southern rebels, as well as some folks in the North, are fond of shaking their heads in view of Lieutenant General Grant's approaching campaign in Virginia, with the remark that though General Grant has heretofore been successful in beating the rebel generals, he has never yet encountered General Lee. That is true enough. But do these people ever think that if it be true that Grant has never fought Lee, it is equally true that Lee has never met Grant?

☞A burglar-proof vault has been invented, in which a space between two of the plates is filled with iron balls about one inch in diameter entirely loose. The plates cannot be drilled through, as a drill must strike one of these balls which would rotate with the tool instead of being perforated by the process. One of these vault's has recently been erected in the Custom House in Chicago.

☞The most plausible conjectures concerning Gen. Grant's plan of operations for the spring campaign is that which assigns a force of fifty or sixty thousand men, including Burnside's Ninth Army Corps, to advance directly against Richmond by way of the Peninsula, Gen. W. F. Smith commanding, while Gen. Meade's army takes care of Lee and Longstreet.

☞From full accounts of the late battles in Louisiana, we learn that the fighting on the 8th inst. was terribly severe on the Union troops, who were under the immediate command of Gen. Banks. On the 9th, however, Gen. A. J. Smith, commanding the Vicksburg expedition, came up opportunely, and after a severe battle, turned our defeat into a victory.

☞Gen. Scott, who is in excellent health, considering his great age, is preparing an auto biography of his life and times, which will form a valuable mine for future historians. The proof-sheets have already been taken of a portion of the work, and the whole will soon be given to the public.

ARMY MAILS STOPPED.—A dispatch from Washington of the 20th says.—The mails from the army of Potomac are all to be stopped after to morrow. Reasons—Indiscreet revelations the soldiers are likely to make.

DUTY ON PRINTING PAPER.—When the House comes to raise the tariff on imported articles, the members of Ways and Means will warmly advocate leaving printing paper for us. They express the opinion that it will be able to carry it.

☞A monument of pure Parian marble is to be erected in Hartford in honor of Col. Sam. Colt, the ingenious pistol manufacturer. It will be, it is said, one of the finest monuments in the country, and is to be made by Mr. Rogers, our American sculptor at Rome.

☞The American war is fast canonizing even the localities of ancient Rome. Pompeii is to day surrounded on every side by a large cotton field, and similar plantations occupy the neighborhood as far as Castellamare.

☞Only five days now remain for payers of taxes to make returns of their incomes for 1863. If returns are not made by the 1st day of May fifty per cent will be added to taxes besides other penalties which follow the delay.

☞Dr. Thos. Donehon, late of Wellsville, Ohio, having located in Beaver, will receive calls at his office in the Southern extremity of the National Hotel, in this place.

MARRIED:

April 19th, by Rev John D. Knox, Mr. WILLIAMSON GRAHAM, of Bridgewater, to Miss PHILIE RENO of Rochester, Pa.

DIED:

On the 23d of April, at the Union Hotel, Phillipsburg, Miss MAY C. daughter of J. & C. SHIVLES, of Moon township, aged 16 years, 8 months and 8 days.

On the 21st inst, at the residence of his uncle, John Farrell, Vanport, JOHN HENRY NELSON, aged 19 years, 9 months and 2 days. The deceased was from Blair county, Pa.

In the Army of the Potomac, on the 14th inst., of Pneumonia, GEORGE S. BAILEY, of Co. I, 140th Reg. P. V.

Died in the morning of life,
Having lived but a score of years;
Died in the camp of the army,
With his comrade volunteers.

Died away at the Rapidan river,
Many miles from the loved ones at home;
Died in his tent, surrounded
By his volunteer messmates alone.

Died, as have thousands before him,
In defence of freedom and right;
Died, to as much honor entitled,
As though he had fell in the fight.

Died where no father or mother
Could wipe the death-damp from his brow;
Died a believer in Christ,
And rejoices in Heaven now.

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body, will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disorder deranged.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to:

CRITTENDEN'S PHILADELPHIA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,

N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut St.,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS Institution, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our Country.

The object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

The branches taught are, Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade; Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

The great peculiarity in practice is, that no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men, wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time A DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

☞ CRITTENDEN'S Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.

MARRIAGE.

ITS loves and hates; sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys; MANHOOD, how lost, how restored; the nature treatment and radical cure of spermaterrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility, and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incident to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given. It is full of engravings. In fact, it discloses secrets that every one should know; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or postage stamps.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with those Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE.

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS' ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to ensure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES.

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a watermark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box. The same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the world. 8 boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger Sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

A Family and an Agricultural Journal,

DEVOTED TO

CHOICE LITERATURE,

INCLUDING

Poetry, Novelsetts, Tales,

AND MORAL AND ENTERTAINING READING GENERALLY,

In the Literary Department we shall present the choicest varieties within the reach of our extended means. The Novelettes, Tales, Poetry, &c., shall be supplied from the best and highest sources, and be equal to anything to be found in any journal or magazine.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

EMBRACING

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features, and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

Advance Cash Terms.

One copy, one year, $2; one copy, three years, $5.00; three copies, one year, $5.00; Five Copies, One Year, $8.00; Ten Copies, One Year, $15.00; Twenty Copies, One Year, $28.00.

☞ Subscription not paid within the year, $2.50.

☞ A Club of five subscribers, at $8, will entitle the person getting it up to a copy for six months; a Club of ten or more, to a copy for one year. All Club subscriptions stopped at the end of the time paid for, unless re-ordered.

☞ No order will receive attention unless accompanied with the cash.

☞ Specimen numbers sent to applicants.

WM. B. HURD & CO.,
Tribune Buildings, New York

Dr. Hurd's MOUTH WASH, TOOTH POWDER and TOOTHACHE DROPS cannot be sent by mail, but they can probably be obtained at your Drug or Periodical Store. If they cannot, send to me for the DENTAL TREASURY. Price, ONE DOLLAR, which contains them.

NOW.

BE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS NOW.

The best evidences that they are so, is that their fairest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no better opinion of Brooklyn or Williamsburg exists than their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as they are known to the profession. Without [illegible] dealers have sold it [illegible] for the years.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Eagle says:—We are happy to know that Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success lies with the fact: that his articles are genuine, and they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."

The well known P. T. Barnum writes:—I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. We find it to be the best powder for the teeth we have ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill."

But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acids, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman—a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day begin more pleasantly. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the the best preparations in the world for curing bad breath and giving firmness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, Canker, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to courtship, and make husbands more agreeable to their wives and wives to their husbands. They should be used by every person having which are liable to impart a taint to the mouth.

Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure Toothache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best friends that parents can have in the house to save their children from torture and themselves from loss of sleep and sympathetic suffering.

Farmers and mechanics! you cannot well afford to neglect your teeth. For a trifling sum you can now get preservatives, than which Rothschild or Astor can get nothing better. Remember that Dyspepsia and Consumption of the Teeth often originate in neglect of Teeth. Send for the Treatise on Teeth, and read Dr. Fitch's observations on this subject. If too late to arrest decay in your own teeth, save your children's teeth.

NEURALGIA PLASTERS.—Dr. Hurd's Neuralgia Non-Adhesive Plasters are the most pleasant and successful remedies ever prescribed for this painful disease. The patient applies one, soon becomes drowsy, falls asleep, and awakes free from pain, and no blister or other unpleasant or injurious consequences ensue. For Earache and Nervous Headache, apply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Compress for Neuralgia. Try them. They are entirely a novel, curious and original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small, for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 37 cents. Will be mailed on receipt of price and one stamp.

WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?

The American people are intelligent enough to appreciate preparations that contribute so much to happiness of those using them, and they wont them. Every mail brings us letters, some ordering the Treatise on Teeth, some the Neuralgia Plasters, and not a few enclosing offers for the Mouth Wash, to be sent by mail; but to these we are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half-pint bottle by mail. The people want these Remedies. Who will supply them?

Now is the
